RULES XII EDITION/2015

Award procedure

This award has three stages. In the eliminatory first stage, all of the applications for this award will be assessed. To do this, the Judges will act in accordance with the following assessment criteria:

1. The recipes are prepared with the olive oils selected from the latest Jaén Selección Tasting Competition.
2. The recipes are practicable and understandable, in the opinion of the Judges.
3. The dishes must be original and well-conceived, in the opinion of the Judges.

15 final recipes will be selected during this stage.

In the second, also eliminatory stage, 10 final recipes will be judged in accordance with the same assessment criteria established for the first stage. In this stage, the composition of the Panel of Judges will be different from that of the first stage.

6 final recipes will be selected during this stage.

In the third stage, the six finalists from the previous stage will compete. When choosing the winner, the final appearance and taste of the dish will be assessed.

The third stage will take place in the Municipal Conference Centre of Madrid on 4 February 2015, within the edition corresponding to Madrid Fusión 2015. The Provincial Council will provide both transport to and from the place of residence of each of the finalists, as well as their accommodation during the final stage. These costs will be financed by the budgetary account 2014.490.920.22699.

PREMIO INTERNACIONAL DE COCINA
CON ACEITE DE OLIVA VIRGEN EXTRA

Judges

The Panel of Judges for the first stage will be made up of two representatives of the Madrid Fusión Technical Committee and one representative of the Provincial Council of Jaén.

The Panel of Judges in the second and third stages will be made up of specialist journalists and prestigious chefs, as well as several representatives from the Provincial Council of Jaén.

The Judges will be appointed by the President of the Provincial Council of Jaén, and will be published in the Official Gazette of the Province of Jaén at least fifteen days before the each of the stages of this award take place.

The actions of the Judges will be regulated under article 26 of Law 30/1992 on the Legal System applicable to Public Administration and the Common Administrative Procedure (RJAPPAC).

The second Panel of Judges will propose a winner in accordance with the award criteria contained in this call for entries, within a period of 15 days following the final stage of this award. The Judges will be able to declare any of the awards void. The proposed Decision of the Judges will be passed to the competent body of the Provincial Council of Jaén for it to be awarded in the month following the issuing of the proposal by the Judges.

In exceptional cases, the decision may differ from that proposed by the Judges, in which case the reasons for the decision must be stated in the competition documentation. The decision will be published in the BOP and on the Council notice board, and notification will be issued in accordance with the provisions of article 59 of Law 30/1992, of 26 November, on the Legal System applicable to Public Administration and the Common Administrative Procedure.

As regards the recipes, the Council may reserve the rights of publication, retransmission, broadcasting or recording via any system, and may freely and exclusively sell and transfer the aforementioned rights, without limitation, to any person or entity, free of charge. To this end, application for entry will entail the granting of the aforementioned rights.
